

DEMOGRAPHY FALL 2002 BROWN BAG SERIES

September 4: Eugene Hammel and Erik Smith, Dept. of Demography, UCB Differential Fertility in the Muslim World.

September 11: Hans-Peter Kohler, Max Planck Institute, Lowest-Low Fertility in Europe. (available in pdf format)

September 18: Jim Smith, RAND Program in Population and Labor, Expected Bequests and their Distribution

September 25: Michael Hout, Dept. of Sociology, UCB, The Overworked American Family: Trends and Non-Trends in Working Hours, 1968-2002. (Co-author Caroline Hanley). Paper available in pdf format.

October 2: Iliana Kohler, Max Planck Institute, Mortality in Transition Countries: A Bulgarian Snapshot in the Early 1990s.

October 9: Kristen Hawkes, University of Utah, Dept. of Anthropology, Slow Life Histories and the Importance of Grandmothers in Human Evolution.

October 16: Nancy Howell, Department of Sociology, University of Toronto, Canada, Age Patterns of Food Production and Consumption for the !Kung Bushmen

October 23: John Wilmoth, Dept. of Demography, UCB, A Parametric Representation of Mortality Differentials Over Age and Time, With Application to Finland, 1971-1995.

October 30: Ronald Lee, Dept. of Demography, UCB, Intergenerational Transfers and the Evolution of the Life Cycle.

November 6: Jennifer Johnson-Hanks, Dept. of Demography, UCB, Marriage and the Timing of the Second Birth in Camaroon.

November 13: Michael Hurd, RAND, The Retirement-Consumption Puzzle: Expected and Actual Spending Declines at Retirement. (Co-author Susann Rohwedder, RAND)

November 20: Philip Kreager, Sommerville College, Oxford University, Ageing in Indonesia.

November 27: Thanksgiving Break

December 4: Pepper Schwartz, Department of Sociology, University of Washington, The Transformation of Love: Sexually Adventurous Women of the Baby Boom Look Back on the 70s and 80s.