

DEMOGRAPHY FALL 2004 BROWN BAG SERIES

Sept. 8: Kenneth Chay, Dept. of Economics, UCB, The Costs of Low Birth Weight.

Sept. 15: Eugene Hammel, Dept. of Demography, UCB, Demographic Instability, Kinship Inequalities, and Their Political Implications.

Sept. 22: Junia Quiroga, CEDEPLAR, Brazil, Race, Gender and Vulnerability Among Couples: Sexual Negotiation and STI's/HIV Prevention in a Brazilian Shantytown.

Sept. 29: William Dow, Dept. of Public Health, UCB, Medicare and Longevity in International Perspective.

Oct. 6: Federico Girosi, RAND Corp., Using Prior Knowledge in Mortality Forecasting.

Oct. 13: Charles Jones, Dept. of Economics, UCB, The Value of Life and the Rise in Health Spending.

Oct. 20: Nicholas Jewell, Dept. of Public Health - Biostatistics, UCB, Estimating the Case Fatality Rate for SARS.

Oct. 27: Jennifer Johnson-Hanks and Sarah Walchuk, Dept of Demography/Graduate Group in Sociology and Demography, UCB, The Heart's Reasons: Toward a Theory of Reproductive Practice After Rational Choice.

Nov. 3: John Wilmoth, The Multi-State Lexis Model, Applied to Fertility by Parity in the United States, 1917-2000.

Nov. 10: James Smith, RAND, Housing Price Volatility, the Demographic Ladder and Home Ownership.

Nov. 17: Magali Barbieri, INED, Surviving to Old Age in a Transitional Economy: Living Standards and Arrangements of the Elderly in Vietnam.

Dec. 1: Ronald Lee, Department of Demography, UCB, Who Wins and Who Loses? Public Transfer Accounts for US Generations Born 1850 to 2090.