

DEMOGRAPHY SPRING 2003 BROWN BAG SERIES

January 22: Trevon Logan, Dept of Economics, UCB Carnivores, Consumptions, and Centimeters: Empirical Identification of the Nutrition-Stature Hypothesis.

January 29: Aaron Gullickson, Graduate Group in Sociology and Demography, UCB, The Significance of Color Declines: A Re-analysis of Skin-tone Effects in the National Survey of Black Americans.

February 5: Steven Raphael, Goldman School of Public Policy, UCB The Impact of Local Labor Market Conditions on the Likelihood that Parolees are Returned to Custody. (co-author: David F. Weiman, Dept. of Economics Barnard College, Columbia University). A draft copy is available for preview..

February 12: Piedad Urdinola, Department of Demography, UCB, Could War Affect Infant Mortality? The Colombian Case.

February 19: Jennifer Johnson-Hanks, Dept. of Demography, UCB, Birth Spacing as Social Action: Preliminary Comparisons from the Demographic and Health Surveys.

February 26: Andrew Mason, Dept. of Economics, University of Hawaii, Saving, Wealth, and the Transition from Transfers to Individual Responsibility.

March 5: Ken Hill, Population and Family Health Services Dept; director, Hopkins Population Center, Johns Hopkins University; Methods for Estimating the Completeness of Death Recording: Applications to China 1964 to 2000.

March 12: Jane Mauldon, School of Public Policy, UCB, The Family Formation Impacts of Welfare Reform: Fresh Evidence from Four Experiments

March 19: Walter Scheidel, Department of Classics, Stanford, Continuity and Change in Mediterranean Demography from Antiquity to the Modern Period.

March 26: Spring recess No Brown Bag Seminar this week.

April 2: Gretchen Stockmayer, Dept. of Demography, UCB, Distinguishing the Levels and Dimensions of U.S. Metropolitan Segregation, 1960-2000.

April 9: Andrew Noymer, Dept. of Sociology, UCB, The Transmission and Persistence of 'Urban Legends': Demographic/Epidemic Models of Rumors.

April 16: Pre PAA, Students presenting talks should plan on 15 minutes per talk, followed by 5 minutes of questions.

Presenter: Rachel Sullivan, "Distribution of the Age at First Birth Among U.S. Women 1984-1993: An Analysis of a Bimodal Pattern."

April 23: Pre PAA.

Presenter: Aaron Gullickson, "Biracial Black/White Children and Class: The Semi-Permeable Boundaries of Race in America."

Presenter: Bernardo Queiroz, "Regional Wage Differentials and the Social Returns to Education: A Hierarchical Approach."